R.H. Drexel's Top 50 Wines of 2022

| BY R.H. DREXEL | NOVEMBER 12, 2022

This year brought great opportunities to discover new wines and revisit old enological friends. It was also the year to dip one's toes back into the socializing waters. I did this with conviction in 2022, attending numerous wine events and countless trade tastings. A retrospective tasting of the first decade of Kimsey estate wines, from Santa Barbara County's Ballard Canyon, proved breathtaking, as did the other wines of winemaker Matt Dees.

#16 KIMSEY White Blend 2019 Ballard Canyon, Santa Barbara

Rhône-inspired beauty. Apricot. Spanish poppies in the sunlight.
