

Fall Wine & Music Pairings: Autumn Sounds of Somms Playlist

OCTOBER 2022

A new season means a new chance to ask more wine professionals for their seasonal wine and song pairings. For fall, we asked our panel of professionals for a song pairing with one of their favorite medium-bodied red wines.

The perfect accompaniment to a dip in temperatures, harvest festivals, leaf-peeping, and sometimes, a feeling of nostalgia. This is our "Sounds of Somms" playlist for Autumn 2022. Be sure to Follow Winetraveler's Official Spotify Profile and follow this playlist to listen all season long.

MAISIE LYMAN

Wine: KIMSEY GRENACHE, 2018

Wine Buyer:

Commercial Acquisitions at Benchmark Wine Group, Napa, California

Song(s):

Turnin' Me Up by BJ the Chicago Kid, Follow Your Arrow by Kacey Musgraves (and the rest of the Same Trailer Different Park Album)

Maisie Says:

Subtle yet self-assured, the 2018 Grenache from Kimsey's tiny bit of heaven in Ballard Canyon outside Santa Barbara layers spring strawberries against crushed white pepper and garrigues on the nose. The black cherry palate laced with raspberry and savory acidity offers a luminous experience. Rounded, fine-grained tannins, elegant acidity, and a finish that lingers lure you back sip after sip.
